TO: Prospective Respondents

RE: Call For Submissions #SUMMER2017DRISI

The purpose of this document is to answer written questions submitted by prospective respondents before the September 13, 2017 deadline in reference to Call For Submissions solicitation entitled 18_TSM 01: Class IV Separated Bikeways in California (A Safety Mobility Analysis):

Question 1: If one or more implementing agencies might not have bicycle trips after-data for one or more bikeways, is it expected of the contractor to perform the data collection exercise (with appropriate equipment) for all the those agencies?

Answer: Yes, it is expected that the contractor would perform data collection if counts are not readily available. Counts could be taken manually or using automated equipment.

Question 2: Is there an allocated amount of budget for this project?

Answer: To maintain the integrity of the solicitation process, a specific budget amount will not be disclosed.

Question 3: When would you anticipate the project to start?

Answer: An initial consultation will be scheduled with the awarded respondent within 7-14 business days of proposal selection and work is expected to begin on or after January 2, 2018.
